

Revd Canon Miles Baker
Director of Ministry
miles.baker@london.anglican.org

Dear Candidate,

I'm delighted to write to you about this exciting opportunity to join the Ministry Team in the Diocese of London as the Area Director of Ministry for the Two Cities Episcopal Area.

The Two Cities Area Director of Ministry (ADM) leads the Area Ministry Team. The ADM is responsible for fostering vocations, directing ordinands, overseeing clergy reviews, facilitating training programs, and managing the Area IME2 delivery.

As a senior member of the Two Cities Area Team, the Area Director of Ministry will be involved in strategic planning and implementing ministry objectives within the area.

This role requires managing multiple projects. The candidate will be supported by the Ministry Team, report to the Diocesan Director of Ministry, and work with the diocesan and Two Cities Area team. Administrative and team support will be provided. The Two Cities Area Ministry Team includes Assistant Area Directors of Ordinands (AADOs), lay and ordained discernment assessors, and MDR consultants.

The ideal candidate will have experience in vocational discernment, pastoral care, making effective individual connections, and consulting with colleagues. Self-direction in prioritizing tasks is valued. Commitment to diverse theological traditions within the Church of England is essential.

The Ministry Team have a passion to deliver the diocesan vision.
