

Diocese of Rochester
called together

A calling to minister in the heart of North Kent

The Bishop of Rochester seeks to appoint a Priest in Charge (part time) for the Church of St Peter and St Paul, Shoreham (Tonbridge Archdeaconry)

<https://www.shorehamchurchkent.org>

Set within a welcoming and active village our church seeks a new Priest in Charge with vision, warmth and a deep love for community life.

We would be delighted to welcome someone:

- eager to partner and guide our PCC and congregation towards a sustainable future for our church
- passionate about connecting across generations, especially with children and families on whom the future of the church depends
- whose teaching resonates with real life experiences while remaining rooted in the authority of Scripture
- ready to become part of our lively village community, bringing Christian care and presence to those of strong faith, growing faith, or curious hearts

This is a church where belonging matters.
If this speaks to your calling, we would love to hear from you.

In return we offer:

- a congregation of enthusiastic, committed Christians who believe in being open and responsive to society's changing needs
- a beautiful location with good local facilities and excellent community spirit
- a well cared for four bedroom Vicarage (with garage & garden)
- supportive and friendly Archdeaconry and Deanery colleagues
