

The Eccleston Team

Team Rector – Our ideal candidate:

- A person who will bring the team together and enable good communication amongst the team;
- A good leader with a strong pastoral heart, who relishes seeing people grow and flourish and has the ability and concern to nurture and strengthen our team;
- A vision for collaborative mission and ministry, with a capacity to enable the team to engage in new ways of reaching our communities with God's love;
- Able to delegate wisely, discern strengths and needs, recognise and support gifts in others, and nurture vocations into both priestly and lay roles within the churches;
- A minister who has a clear and deeply rooted, biblically based faith, secure and confident in their spiritual and personal life;
- Aligned with our evangelical outlook; equally comfortable with a variety of worship: traditional and modern, formal and informal;
- A mature person who brings balance, takes care of him/herself and family;
- A humble servant leader, who listens with love and responds with wisdom;
- An encourager, who is positive and supportive;
- A heart for worship and a desire to draw others into worship;
- Open to the Holy Spirit and handles scripture with wisdom and insight;
- Someone with organisational skills and the willingness to use technology, IT and social media;
