The Benefice of St Ives and Halsetown

The Bishop of Truro and the Dean and Chapter of Truro Cathedral seek a VICAR

Forward

The Benefice of St Ives and Halsetown was created formally by Pastoral Scheme in 2016, though the two parishes have shared the same Parish Priest for some years now and together they comprise the town of St Ives and some of the beautiful coastal and rural scenery that surrounds it. This profile describes more fully the place, its churches and the people among whom the new Vicar will serve.

St Ives is internationally, and justifiably, renowned for its beauty, the quality of its light and its artistic heritage among other things, which combine to attract many to live here and many thousands to visit. This makes it a vital and fertile place for the mission and ministry of the Church. The congregations of St Ia and St Johnin-the Fields are committed to working with their new Vicar to continue the tried-and-tested and to discover many new ways of sharing the Gospel of Jesus with residents and visitors alike. This is a wonderful opportunity for a Priest of vision, faith and energy.

The benefice belongs within the Deanery of Penwith, the westernmost Deanery in the UK, comprising 27 parishes and served by around 10 incumbent clergy and a good number of retired and self-supporting ministers, both lay and ordained.

The Diocese of Truro seeks to take the welfare of its clergy very seriously and the Bishop is particularly keen to ensure that all work within a context of mutual support and encouragement. This is demonstrated in:

- the requirement that all incumbent clergy participate in the Diocesan programme of Accompanied Ministry Development
- the collection of policies adopted by Diocesan Synod under the heading "Never Alone".

The person appointed to this role will embrace this ethos as well as the Truro Diocesan Vision to "Discover God's Kingdom; Grow the Church".

He/she will aspire to the Qualities and Values outlined by the Bishop of Truro below and will be able to demonstrate that they are well-matched against the Person Specification prepared by the parishes.

Application forms should in the first instance be submitted to myself, the Archdeacon of Cornwall. I will also be pleased to have an informal conversation about the post before an application is submitted, should you so wish.

Qualities and Values of those we invite to work with us in achieving our vision

DIOCESE OF TRURO
DISCOVERING GOD'S KINGDOM
GROWING THE CHURCH

'The Church of England, as so often in its history, is facing a period of change in which we are being asked "to proclaim the Gospel afresh to a new generation" (Preface to the Oaths and Declaration). As well as this the Church is facing internal challenges, not least of which is the declining number of stipendiary clergy due mainly to large numbers of retirements.

In the Diocese of Truro we are responding to these challenges by investing in mission-focused initiatives that help us to discover God's Kingdom, grow the Church, and create flourishing communities. These focus around the challenge to personal Discipleship, the development of Leadership through Accompanied Ministry Development, and the priority of Mission, expressed not least through the encouragement of New Ministries. Further outworking of these is contained in the Diocesan Strategy document "Confidence in the Gospel" Development plan 2016-18.

We have also signed an Ecumenical Declaration of Intent (November 2013) with other denominations to commit ourselves to working together wherever possible.

The ordained ministry will continue to play a crucial role in the delivery of these initiatives, and therefore we are keen to have priests working in the Diocese who are at the forefront of meeting these challenges and achieving this vision.

With this in mind we are seeking to encourage and invite to work and live with us those priests who ...'

- are joyful at the demands of the Gospel and live convinced of the importance of hope. We are called to be a joyful and hopeful people;
- can work flexibly and are willing to be adaptable in their methods and approaches and seek partnership with those who work more widely to flourishing communities;
- are innovative and imaginative and strive to be creative and willing to risk failure in order to learn;
- are clear and realistic about their own need to seek repentance regularly and who also look to be those who act as signs and symbols of the reconciling love of God;
- know the value of journeying with others, seeking always to be a pilgrim who learns and grows alongside fellow-travellers;
- nurture and enable a sense of discipleship and vocation in themselves and others;
- live always striving to be people of integrity and authenticity as they seek to become imitators of Christ;
- are eager to see growth in all its dimensions and are aware and excited by the dynamic reality that we are always changing and that change brings opportunities and fresh challenges;
- are convicted of the necessity and virtue of working with others so that they never work alone. In other words they are alert to collaboration with all who work alongside them, clergy and lay and will work to forge good relations with other denominations to further the missio dei (God's mission);
- are resilient in personal terms with a well-developed and rigorous prayer discipline, mindful of the need to balance their life and work and also resilient and aware of the joys and tensions of being part of the Church of England.

I. Introduction

Welcome and thank you for your interest. We offer something special and are sure you will agree!

- Our Benefice offers two parishes which are different in terms of their location and social mix, but work together to continue to fulfil our joint mission 'Celebrating the good news of God's Love'.
- The 15th century church of St Ia is in a prime position overlooking the harbour. We extend a warm welcome to all who come to St Ives, our doors are open daily for prayer and reflection.
- St John in-the-Fields Church serves the parish of Halsetown and was consecrated in 1860. Although geographically a distance away from the village of Halsetown, it has a growing community where many local St Ives people live. The church is now surrounded by local housing. The parish church also encompasses Penbeagle Industrial Estate comprising of small industry.
- Our churches are affirming and inclusive and the liturgy in both is centred on the Parish Eucharist.

- We are blessed with a devoted team of officers that each bring their own particular skill set and management expertise.
- We have a strong musical tradition centred around the choir promoting music and singing opportunities within our parishes and through building stronger links and relationships with other churches.
- Between the two churches we have five representatives for Deanery Synod.

- To improve our links with young people and to welcome new families to join our worship.
- To develop our ministry through social action, targeting the needs of the community
- To grow our relationships with schools and youth groups.
- To create a more visible presence in the parishes.
- The vicarage with its four bedroom, study and large orchard garden, is located adjacent to the church of St John-in-the-Fields.

2. Profile of the Benefice

St Ives is a seaside town 'of great charm and character'. Our wonderful beaches border one of the 'most beautiful bays in the world' and the surf laden Atlantic, historic cobbled streets, easy access to the South West coastal footpath and a famous tradition of art & culture, it is one of the most desirable places to be in the country. The local art tradition and the quality of light which has attracted artists during three centuries, lends St Ives a certain quality, not eccentric but definitely not conventional. Galleries and studios abound and the St Ives September Festival features a growing programme of quality art and culture.

St Ives is bustling and busy with Holidaymakers throughout the year, it peaks during the school holidays.

Historically a fishing village, present day attractions include The Tate Gallery, Barbara Hepworth studio and garden, The Bernard Leach Pottery, numerous galleries and watersport ativities.

The Incumbant will encounter a wide and diverse community consisting of local residents, employed and retired, seasonal workers, second home owners, occupational employees, all of whom have differing expectations.

Traditionally as confimed by local statistics the parishes are relatively deprived with respect to other comparable parishes.

Although only twelve miles from Land's End, St Ives has good transport links with the rest of the country. Within the Diocese we have many excellent colleges and universities.

For more information regarding St Ives town visit the St Ives Cornwall Tourism Association website at https://www.stives-cornwall.co.uk/.

3. Profile of St Ia the Virgin

Church Membership

St la the Virgin is The Parish Church of St Ives, home of the Town Clock, with Traditional Anglo Catholic Worship. We benefit from an all year round congregation (100 on the electrol role) from around the greater St Ives area as much because of the style of worship as its central location. Although attendance in the c250 capacity building may vary between 40 and 70 on most Sundays, that number will be swelled mainly, but not only, during the holiday seasons with a number of visitors and part time residents who consider the Church to be an integral part of their time in the town. St la can offer a Sunday School for young people and families although numbers of young people have fallen in recent years.

The employment and status profiles of the town are shown in an attached appendix. Church members would probably be described as from the older and more prosperous end of the profile with, perhaps, a larger proportion of retired people than in the town at large.

During the past twelve months there were 10 Baptisms (2 adults), 21 Marriages (Few from the parish most by special licence) and 2

Wedding Blessings at St la the Virgin while the clergy conducted some 5 funeral services followed by committal at Penmount, Treswithian crematoria, or Longstone Cemetery.

Churchmanship/Tradition

There is a strong Anglo Catholic tradition with sung Eucharist every Sunday, Incense offered, the Sanctus Bell rung and the Gong sounded. Servers are robed and clergy wear traditional vestments. We have a Musical Director and a robed choir who sing anthems every Sunday and on special occasions. The Lords Prayer and responses are sung and a number of cantors chant the weekly psalm. We provide a good standard of music which has come to be a recognised aspect that compliments our Anglo catholic liturgy.

Finance

The Financial Statements for the Church are shown in an attached appendix. We benefit from a number of regular donations from visitors plus our own fund raising efforts. The church owns two cottages from which an income is derived. We also generate significant funds by having the church building open most of the year supervised by our volunteer stewards. During the holiday season we have both daytime and evening concerts with a retiring donation. Our Events team raise funds throughout the year with our Church Café, Garden Fêtes and various traditional festivals. The Café is open throughout the holidays offering a host of homemade goodies.

3. Profile of St Ia the Virgin (Contd.)

Ministry & Mission

Our Mission Statement 'Celebrating the good news of God's Love' is shared with St John-in-the-Fields. The foundation of our life in the church is worship and prayer as we support each other on our journeys of faith. With the power of God's spirit we continue to make Christ known in the communities he has called us to serve.

In recent times we have undertaken a number of mission initiatives including; a meditation group and a joint parish Bible Study Group.

St la is home to the towns many civic and traditional annual services and ceremonies. Throughout the year we welcome schools and groups for services, ceremonies, history and art tours.

Patterns of worship & services

Sunday 08:00am Mass

09:45am Parish Mass

Friday 10:30am Said Mass

Other Festival Services include...
Services every day during HolyWeek.
A number of Carol Services for local organisations.
Midnight Mass on Christmas Eve.
Childrens Nativity service.

Other Matters

The organ in St Ia Church is a fine example of a Heal instrument and attracts professional organists from far and wide.

The Vicar in St la the Virgin is also a trustee of the John Knill Day ceremony held in July once every five years. And is an integral part of the celebrations for St Ives annual Feast Day of St la the Virgin. He or she is also obliged to give the Hext Sermon to commemorate the granting of the Town's Charter in 1295. St Ives Feast Day is held in February every year and the Hext Sermon in May.

4. Profile of St John in-the-Fields

Church Membership

St John in-the-Fields built in the 19th century originally surrounded by miners cottages has over the years experienced many changes but now presents a challenge both for traditional and alternative services with its central alter backed by a beautiful east window full of life and colour, portraying a nativity of the Lord, Madonna, St John and angels. A delight to behold! It has a small welcoming church family, following a catholic tradition with opportunities for alternative services.

Parish employment and status profiles are much the same as those in the census figures shown in the attached appendices.

Churchmanship/Tradition

Presently St Johns worship is mainly Eucharistic, based on Anglican liturgy of common worship with music. Services are presided over by the incumbent and retired clergy assisted by worship leaders, robed servers and members of the congregation. At present one member of the congregation is training to be a Lay Reader. During the Sunday service Incense is offered and bells and gong are sounded. Prayer ministry is offered at each service by a small team of intercessors. In addition we have four Franciscans of the Third Order and one currently in training. All including those not confirmed, and families with children are welcomed at the altar for a blessing during the communion.

Patterns of Worship & Services

Sunday 11:15am Parish Mass

Some evening services have been held recently centred on alternative worship, meditation and prayer, but this has not yet become a regular event

During the past 12 months there has been 5 baptisms, 2 marriages and 8 funerals.

Ministry and Mission

Whilst we value our distinctive styles of worship and ways of doing things we have more recently been working more closely with St Ia. Although St Johns does not share the benefit of being in the midst of the tourist scene, it does nevertheless present a challenge of diversity situated in its own extensive grounds surrounded by modern residential dwellings. The grounds themselves offer opportunities for festivals, fetes and youth activities. Another asset is the large car park around the church.

4. Profile of St John in-the-Fields (Contd.)

We have a well-appointed church hall used throughout the week by Bridge Club, Slimming World, children's parties, socials and receptions. it is also used for local elections and Civic occasions (as the mayor recently did when she held a lunch for local citizens of St Ives). We also hold jumble sales periodically, as well as Christmas fare and summer events. The proceeds shared between church funds and a nominated charity.

We take part in the annual Good Friday March of Witness with other churches in St Ives and share in other outreach initiatives organised by Churches Together.

The church has been a centre for school visits, drama groups, craft and flower festivals as well as religious performances by choirs and individual artists.

Many choose to retire to St Ives, living in their own homes or in one of the residential or nursing establishments in the area. As invited, a small group visits the homes to sing hymns, pray and have fellowship with the residents, some of whom receive Holy Communion and healing ministry.

We desire to be united in growth and would welcome opportunities for Mission and Outreach and festival celebrations as part of the Christian community of our Benefice.

STATEMENT OF CONDITIONS, NEEDS AND TRADITIONS Parishes of St la the Virgin and St John-in-the-Fields, St Ives, Cornwall

I. Key Hopes for Our Benefice

We as a new Benefice want to celebrate the good news of God's love by maintaining our churches as places of worship and communion, the foundation upon which all else is built. We welcome an integrated approach of our services with civic ceremonial events - reaching out to others to strengthen the place of the church at the centre of community life. We encourage and nurture the spiritual growth and commitment of our congregation to take more of an active involvement in church life, to open our hearts and doors to visitors whether seeking long-term spiritual sustenance or wishing to know more about Christianity and the church or simply seeking a place and people to understand their current condition. We wish our Christian belief and the way we live it out in our lives and worship to be central to our lives and attractive to those looking in from outside the church.

Specifically, we seek...

- I. Numerical Growth:
 - a) To expand our mission to the younger generation by building on our current relationships with the local schools.
 - b) To revitalise peoples faith in Christian belief through more public representation and involvement with the church community.
 - c) To encourage secular activities to make use of our buildings, facilities and environment for functions, fundraising, exhibitions and events all in anticipation of an increase in congregation numbers.
- 2. Unification and development of our social media and websites whilst maintaining our distinctive ethos and individual styles.
- 3. To develop a more flexible programme of traditional and alternative liturgy.
- 4. To continue Christ mission as healer through outreach work to the elderly, infirm, bereaved and those in need, developing a greater level of community care.
- 5. Greater co-operation in schemes such as Churches Together, joint events like lent lunches, Walks of Witness, Advent services and other events unique to St Ives.
- 6. St la has embarked on a project that began with the sale of its parish rooms. This has released funds for the creation of additional space for Sunday School and community use. We look forward to the support of a new incumbent with this venture.
- 7. St Johns is home to a valuable and well-utilised church hall complete with parking, we look forward to an expansion of activities to cater for the needs of the community.
- 8. Our new benefice is looking forward to an individual who will lead our open minds and hearts to new ventures and ideas.

STATEMENT OF CONDITIONS, NEEDS AND TRADITIONS Parishes of St la the Virgin and St John-in-the-Fields, St Ives, Cornwall

2. Key qualities we are looking for in our next priest...

The new vicar will need to be a prayerful priest with pastoral, managerial and teaching skills. An individual who is strong, flexible, adaptable and can comfortably hold together our diverse traditions, who can lead us forward in worship in a variety of styles.

In the new incumbent we look for...

- An inspiring open-hearted priest whose vitality and zest for life shines out in the leading of uplifting worship, preaching of the gospel, church teaching and instruction in the catholic tradition.
- 2. Has a clear understanding of Liturgy and who is liberal and inclusive.
- 3. Chairmanship that demonstrates good and firm leadership.
- 4. Wisdom born from life experience together with spiritual understanding.
- Able to lead, set a vision to assist with forward thinking objectives to help us all realise our mission.
- Provide support to Church Officers, Musical Director, both PCCs and other committee members.

In Conclusion, we offer a fantastic opportunity to be a part of a faithful family. Besides the beautiful churches that come with the position, there are a lot of attractions and distractions in the area, a chance to live in a place that offers many ways to expand the mind, body and soul. We look forward to welcoming you into our family.

PCC St Ives General Account

Note

- There is a fall off from tax recovered and some of this can be attributed to what seems to be a constant shortage of pens for people to fill out Gift Aid envelopes.
- A legacy of £5000 was received from the estate of the late Pam Parkinson RIP, the stipulation being that it be used 'for the beautification of the church'. These funds are held in the Reserve account and marked as 'restricted'.
- 3 The high figure last year related to the net sale proceeds of the Parish Room.
- In 2010 MMF(Common Fund) arrears had escalated to an alarming figure in excess of £66000. St la had previously enjoyed a good record of meeting its quota in full each year. Since that time we have made substantial inroads into removing this deficit through various incentive schemes introduced by the Diocese in response to their financial difficulties.

Since 2014 the Diocese have increased MMF quotas in excess of 30% across the board, they had previously been based on annual accounts. The 2014 quota amounted to 27191 and was based on our accountsfor 2013. The quota now stands at £35848 for 2016, with a further 1.5% increase planned for 2017. For us these figures are unsustainable as our true income does not support this level of expenditure.

However, there was an incentive for 2016 that any parish that met its quota in full would have all previous arrears cancelled. At the beginning of 2016 our arrears had been reduced to £29857 (£66000). I recommended to the PCC that we draw £10000 from our reserves on a one off basis to meet the quota. We did meet the quota, but like all parishes we will in future have to accept MMF arrears accumulating year on year as we cannot meet this sum from income and it would be folly to drain our reserves in order to do so. Should we drain our reserves to meet this we would get no support from the Diocese if we ran into financial difficulty.

- 5 There was a substantial uplift in Bookstall expenditure as stock was revamped to saleable items.
- 6 Following the appointment of Peter Luing as both organist and Musical Director we have seen a substantial saving in expenditure together with a big uplift in income generated from concerts. Both Peter and Christine have made a huge contribution in this regard.
- Expenditure of £2592 was incurred for a survey required on the church to enable the architect to undertake drawings for the vestry area.
 A further £314.40 was paid to South West Water for permission to carry out repairs to the sewerage and drainage system. It is anticipated that this work will cost in the region of £10000, and will an integral part of the vestry development, with funds sourced from Parish Hall funds. Work is expected to start on the drainage in Feb 2017.

PCC St Ives Designated Accounts

Note

- This provides detail of where the net proceeds from the sale of the Parish Room are invested. These funds are deemed 'restricted' as they allocated toward the development of the new facilities within the church. Whilst architect opinion and ideas are being sought, the PCC has not yet been presented with plans or given formal approval.
 - The investment of funds was completed toward the end of 2015. This was protracted due to the necessity of having at least 3 signatories all of whom had to provide formal identification to the various institutions. This was further exacerbated by the Financial Services Compensation Scheme which provides protection of up to £75000 with each separate organisation.
 - The PCC should be aware that interest caspitalisation has caused some of these investments to exceed the FSCS limit, however, given the general low interest rates available elsewhere, I feel there is minimal risk from the institutions chosen.
- The 60/40 Sweepstake has an operational requirement of 50 members, each contributing the equivalent of £1 per month. A monthly draw is then made with a prize of £20 for the winner. The balance is retained for the church and the scheme has made substantial contributions toward essential purchases for the church over many years.
 - The 60/40 club desperately needs new members to ensure its viability.

APPENDICES

Independent Examiner's Report to the members of St John's in the Field Church, Halsetown Parochial Church Council.

I report on the accounts for the year ended 31st December 2016.

Respective responsibilities of the Trustees and Independent Examiner

The charity's trustees consider that an audit is not required for this year under section 144(2) of the Charities Act 2011 and that an independent examination is needed.

It is my responsibility to

- (a) Examine the accounts under section 145 of the 2011 Act
- (b) Follow the procedures laid down in the General Directions given by the Charity Commissioners section 145(5)(b) of the 2011 Act; and
- (c) State whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of Independent Examiner's Statement

My examination was carried out in accordance with the General Directions given by the Charity Commission.

An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeking explanations from the committee concerning any such matters.

The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in a full audit, and consequently I do not express an audit opinion on the accounts.

Independent Examiner's Statement

In connection with my examination, no matters have come to my attention

- 1. Which give me reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the requirements
 - To keeping accounting records in accordance with s.130 of the 2011 Act; or

To prepare accounts which accord with these accounting records have not been met, or

2. To which in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached

For every child to set out confidently on the adventure of learning: curious about the world, excited about their future, positive about their ability and caring towards other people.

As an infant school our prime responsibility is to ensure that the children's early educational experiences are positive and that they develop the skills and attitudes upon which the rest of their education will be built. As the children 'set sail' we want them to be excited about the world around them and eager to learn.

The school has six classes and a 52 place nursery. In addition we have an art studio, library and community room, the Jubilee Room. Attractive outdoor areas are used by the children through the school day.

The school is an inclusive community school. We want all children and their families to feel at home in the school and to know that their beliefs are respected and valued.

Through our RE curriculum we aim to develop the children's knowledge of different religions and their understanding of the place of religion in people's lives. We also encourage the children to express their own responses to the experiences and ideas which they encounter.

We play a very active part in the local community and are often seen out and about - visiting the museum, Tate, local woodland and beaches and taking part in community events including a carol concert in the parish church.

Close links are maintained with the local churches and chapels and each week a member of the local clergy visits the school to lead an assembly. We also like to take the children to visit the local churches as part of our RE curriculum.

Thank you for inviting the school to contribute in this way.

St Ives Junior School

The Burrows, St Ives, Cornwall, TR26 IDH

Current Head teacher: Mr Matt Allcock, from September 2017 Ms Ruth Davey

Age range: 7 to 11

The last Ofsted inspection was in 2011 when the school was rated 'outstanding'

School type: Community School There are 237 pupils on roll

Eligibility for free school meals is above the national average

Vision: "LEARNING TOGETHER, FREE TO FLY"

Mission Statement is 'to provide high quality teaching and learning to raise the achievement levels for all pupils.'

Our curriculum, EPIC (Exciting, Personal, Inspirational, Challenging) utilises the best of The International Primary Curriculum and the Cornish themed A Sense of Place. It is underpinned by a number of key beliefs and concepts:

- Independence and interdependence which underpin what it is to have an international mind-set
- An understanding of the results of years of research into the brain and the development of brain-friendly learning and teaching strategies
- Learning underpinned with skills and dispositions which enable our pupils to be flexible, resourceful, collaborative and resilient learners
- An integrated subject approach to learning

By integrating subjects with a rigorous underpinning of the expected out comes of learning at age related levels, EPIC provides rich, exciting and memorable learning opportunities, within a brain friendly and internationally minded curriculum.

EPIC has three main aims:

- To help children learn the subject knowledge, skills and understandings they need to become aware of the world around them
- To help children develop the personal skills they need to take an active part in the world throughout their lives
- To help children develop an international mindset alongside an awareness of their own nationality

THOUGHT OF THE WEEK

Passover with you before I suffer". In this brief passage from Luke's Gospel (22:15) desire compelling enthusiasm or desire for something of vital significance. In the Gospels it's a God word. meaning to suffer) portrays a very strong and intense feeling. Passion is not only as emotion, but a act of love on Passion Sunday. God lays before us the Passion of his Son in all four Gospels which and passion are united. As we move towards Holy week, the scene is set for our Lord's entire in great details his arrest to his Crucifixion. The word Passion, (from the Greek verb "pascho" Today is Passion Sunday. It refers to the beginning of our Lord's trials. All four Gospels record Note the word desire - And He said to them, "I have earnestly desired to eat this reaches its climax on Good Friday

Safeguarding

The Church of England Safeguarding Children Policy 'Protecting all God's Children', has as its first principle: "We are committed to the Safeguarding, care and nurture of the children within our church community".

Within its Safeguarding Adults Policy 'Promoting a Safe Church', The Church of England's first principle is: "We are committed to the respectful pastoral ministry of all adults within the church community".

The Diocese of Truro wholeheartedly endorses these principles and wishes to provide support, advice and information to all those in its parishes who give of their time – both paid and voluntarily – to work with vulnerable adults and children.

At the heart of all that we do are relationships. The church congregation of both parishes, in which people relate to each other and in which we value every single person. It is therefore of primary importance that we take great care of every person and ensure that we have good practice in place to deal with difficult situations and to make sure that we care for each other in the right way.

Although at the moment we have no Sunday school on a regular basis we hope to be able to move forward and improve to have more weekly groups.

The handbook supplied by the diocese is a very important document and it is on view at the back of our church for all to read. It is a requirement that all P.C.C. members read it, and that safeguarding is on the agenda of every P.C.C meeting.

Our safeguarding teams at Truro diocese Is Sarah Acraman or Jane Sloan.

Our local team are Wendy Francis safeguarding co-ordinator for both parishes and Debbie Harris for St John – in–the–Fields.

We will respond without delay to every concern raised, that a child or young person for whom we are responsible may have.
